Why does Stelco reclaim oil that it could buy more cheaply?

It's another step toward a cleaner environment. Our rolling mills, production lines and finishing operations require enormous quantities of process oils while processing steel, and the machinery in use must be constantly lubricated.

Rolling mill oils worn out by heat, pressure, metal particles and bacterial agents become waste materials. To dispose of these, without contributing to environmental pollution, Stelco has installed the first Waste Oil Recovery System to be built in Canada.

The plant, a continuous flow system, accepts oil wastes piped from nearby mills and brought from other Stelco Works as far away as Brantford, Welland and Toronto by tank truck.

The totally enclosed system features two giant clarifiers in which final stages of the separation of oil from water and solids occurs. The latter are further treated and recovered. The oil, now acceptable as a fuel, becomes part of 65 million gallons used annually as an energy source for Stelco's Hilton Works.

This new plant will not reclaim oil for fuel at a saving. But it solves a serious problem of waste disposal, cleanly and effectively... and thus is an important step in Stelco's continuing programme of air and water control. A programme comprising expenditures, or committed expenditures of more than 55 million dollars since 1960.

Just because you spend a lot of time looking after your real estate, doesn't mean your estate is well looked after.

We know a lot about real estate.

We're in the business.

But we're in the business of estate administration and investment management, too.

In a very big way.

For modest annual fees, we can manage your investment portfolio, conduct security transactions, protect your securities in our vaults, receive and remit capital and income for you, and help plan your will.

The list is too long to present in one ad.

Let's just say we're professionals in just about every conceivable kind of financial transaction. And thoroughly knowledgeable in how to make your money situation work out best.

If you'd like to assure yourself of complete financial protection for your family's future, or find out about any of our funds or retirement income plans, get in touch with us.

Royal Trust.

Your real estate isn't always your real estate.

Royal Trust

Trust Royal Trust. We'd like to do more for you.
